3. Agreement

The landlord and all tenants identified in this agreement mutually extend the existing written lease identified above for the same premises. The renewed term begins and ends on the dates stated above. The renewed monthly rent applies from the renewal start date, subject to applicable law.

Except for the renewed term and monthly rent expressly stated here, the lawful provisions of the existing lease and its existing addenda continue unchanged, including payment method, rent due day, utilities, maintenance and occupancy provisions. The existing lease must be kept with this agreement.

This agreement does not add an automatic-renewal provision, change any party, extend a guaranty, impose a new fee, waive a claim, or waive any nonwaivable right. An unlawful term in the existing lease is not validated by this renewal. If a provision conflicts with mandatory law, that law controls.

The stated end date is not a notice to vacate or a waiver of renewal, notice, just-cause, rent-limit, habitability, security-deposit, anti-retaliation or other protections. Any later termination, holdover or further renewal is governed by applicable law and the lawful terms of the lease.

All parties should receive a complete signed copy together with the original lease and required disclosures. Signing this document does not establish that a separate notice has been delivered or that a proposed rent increase is lawful.

4. Documents kept with this renewal

Keep this agreement with the original lease and all existing addenda. Provide each party with the complete signed packet and every applicable state, local and federal disclosure. Required notices must be delivered separately on time; signing this renewal does not cure a missing notice or authorize an unlawful increase.

Additional documents

Before signing

A definite term must be agreed. A renewal is not a notice ending a monthly tenancy. Keep the existing deposit accounting and lawful lease terms; review any rent change before the new term.

For the same home and parties, with a renewed term of up to one year. Complete all applicable fields, keep the original lease, and attach required disclosures. Prescribed regulated-housing forms are outside this template.

Renewal and periodic tenancies

Check the rent due date

Under AS 34.03.290, ending a month-to-month tenancy generally requires written notice at least 30 days before the rental due date specified in the notice. For a week-to-week tenancy while rent is current, the statute specifies at least 14 days before termination. A proposed renewal is a separate document.

Deposit accounting

Record the date possession is returned

AS 34.03.070 distinguishes the ordinary 14-day refund and itemization period after proper notice and surrender from the 30-day period in qualifying cases, such as deductions for damage beyond ordinary wear. If the tenant left without proper notice, check the different deadline trigger. Keep a forwarding address and a dated record.

Complete the renewal

Put the new terms in writing

Carry forward the existing deposit without counting it twice. List any changes to rent, included utilities, or services and their effective dates. Keep the original lease, signed renewal, and records of any move-in or later repairs together.
