3. Agreement

The landlord and all tenants identified in this agreement mutually extend the existing written lease identified above for the same premises. The renewed term begins and ends on the dates stated above. The renewed monthly rent applies from the renewal start date, subject to applicable law.

Except for the renewed term and monthly rent expressly stated here, the lawful provisions of the existing lease and its existing addenda continue unchanged, including payment method, rent due day, utilities, maintenance and occupancy provisions. The existing lease must be kept with this agreement.

This agreement does not add an automatic-renewal provision, change any party, extend a guaranty, impose a new fee, waive a claim, or waive any nonwaivable right. An unlawful term in the existing lease is not validated by this renewal. If a provision conflicts with mandatory law, that law controls.

The stated end date is not a notice to vacate or a waiver of renewal, notice, just-cause, rent-limit, habitability, security-deposit, anti-retaliation or other protections. Any later termination, holdover or further renewal is governed by applicable law and the lawful terms of the lease.

All parties should receive a complete signed copy together with the original lease and required disclosures. Signing this document does not establish that a separate notice has been delivered or that a proposed rent increase is lawful.

4. Documents kept with this renewal

Keep this agreement with the original lease and all existing addenda. Provide each party with the complete signed packet and every applicable state, local and federal disclosure. Required notices must be delivered separately on time; signing this renewal does not cure a missing notice or authorize an unlawful increase.

Renewal and advance notice

Separate the renewal from a rent notice

Write the new start date, end date and rent in the agreement. For a month-to-month tenancy, the Idaho courts guide describes 30 days' written notice before increased rent takes effect; check the existing lease and serve any needed notice separately.

The existing security deposit

Record the balance instead of collecting it again

State what is already held, whether there is an agreed adjustment, and who paid it if tenants change. Idaho Code § 6-321 generally requires the balance after surrender within 21 days unless the agreement specifies a longer period of no more than 30 days. Itemize deductions and exclude ordinary wear.

Repairs and signing

Give the parties a useful renewal packet

Identify pending repairs, preserve the original condition record, and record how repair requests should be sent. Keep the signed renewal and attachments with the original lease. Where one tenant is leaving, state in a separate signed agreement who is released and how the deposit is handled.
