3. Agreement

The landlord and all tenants identified in this agreement mutually extend the existing written lease identified above for the same premises. The renewed term begins and ends on the dates stated above. The renewed monthly rent applies from the renewal start date, subject to applicable law.

Except for the renewed term and monthly rent expressly stated here, the lawful provisions of the existing lease and its existing addenda continue unchanged, including payment method, rent due day, utilities, maintenance and occupancy provisions. The existing lease must be kept with this agreement.

This agreement does not add an automatic-renewal provision, change any party, extend a guaranty, impose a new fee, waive a claim, or waive any nonwaivable right. An unlawful term in the existing lease is not validated by this renewal. If a provision conflicts with mandatory law, that law controls.

The stated end date is not a notice to vacate or a waiver of renewal, notice, just-cause, rent-limit, habitability, security-deposit, anti-retaliation or other protections. Any later termination, holdover or further renewal is governed by applicable law and the lawful terms of the lease.

All parties should receive a complete signed copy together with the original lease and required disclosures. Signing this document does not establish that a separate notice has been delivered or that a proposed rent increase is lawful.

4. Documents kept with this renewal

Keep this agreement with the original lease and all existing addenda. Provide each party with the complete signed packet and every applicable state, local and federal disclosure. Required notices must be delivered separately on time; signing this renewal does not cure a missing notice or authorize an unlawful increase.

Check dates and notice

Identify the current tenancy

K.S.A. 58-2570 ordinarily requires seven days' written notice to terminate a weekly tenancy. For monthly tenancy, notice generally specifies a rent-paying date at least 30 days after receipt, subject to the military-orders exception. A fixed term over 30 days does not become monthly merely because rent is paid monthly. Review the existing renewal clause separately.

Keep the deposit ledger

Check the applicable cap

K.S.A. 58-2550 generally limits deposits to one month's rent for unfurnished units or one and one-half months for furnished units, with a separate pet allowance and rules for qualifying housing authorities. Record the amount already held.

Calendar move-out accounting

For proposed non-rent deductions, the section generally requires returning the balance within 14 days of determining the charge, subject to the 30-day outer period described in the statute. Document the itemization, possession, demand and mailing dates.
