3. Agreement

The landlord and all tenants identified in this agreement mutually extend the existing written lease identified above for the same premises. The renewed term begins and ends on the dates stated above. The renewed monthly rent applies from the renewal start date, subject to applicable law.

Except for the renewed term and monthly rent expressly stated here, the lawful provisions of the existing lease and its existing addenda continue unchanged, including payment method, rent due day, utilities, maintenance and occupancy provisions. The existing lease must be kept with this agreement.

This agreement does not add an automatic-renewal provision, change any party, extend a guaranty, impose a new fee, waive a claim, or waive any nonwaivable right. An unlawful term in the existing lease is not validated by this renewal. If a provision conflicts with mandatory law, that law controls.

The stated end date is not a notice to vacate or a waiver of renewal, notice, just-cause, rent-limit, habitability, security-deposit, anti-retaliation or other protections. Any later termination, holdover or further renewal is governed by applicable law and the lawful terms of the lease.

All parties should receive a complete signed copy together with the original lease and required disclosures. Signing this document does not establish that a separate notice has been delivered or that a proposed rent increase is lawful.

4. Documents kept with this renewal

Keep this agreement with the original lease and all existing addenda. Provide each party with the complete signed packet and every applicable state, local and federal disclosure. Required notices must be delivered separately on time; signing this renewal does not cure a missing notice or authorize an unlawful increase.

Additional documents

Before signing

A fixed term can be extended by agreement; continued occupancy can also create reconduction under separate rules. Sign an explicit extension and keep the existing lease. This form does not determine whether a lease has already reconducted.

For the same home and parties, with a renewed term of up to one year. Complete all applicable fields, keep the original lease, and attach required disclosures. Prescribed regulated-housing forms are outside this template.

Fixed terms and reconduction

Do not rely on the date alone

Civil Code art. 2720 generally ends a fixed lease on expiration unless extended or reconducted. Under art. 2721, a nonagricultural lease longer than a week can reconduct if the tenant remains for one week after expiration without notice or other opposition. A lease of a week or less has a different threshold. If both sides intend a new fixed term, record and sign it expressly.

Refunds and deposit accounting

Calendar the refund and statement separately

R.S. 9:3251 generally calls for returning the deposit within one month after termination, subject to permitted retention. Act 63, effective August 1, 2026, allows an additional 15 days for the statement explaining retained money. Do not assume it extends the refund deadline. Get a written forwarding address and review the statutory abandonment exception before applying the rule.

Completing the agreement

Keep a clear record of what changed

Record the rent, due date, and deposit already held. Identify utility or maintenance changes specifically. If ownership changes, document the deposit transfer to the successor as addressed by R.S. 9:3251(B). Retain the original lease and signed renewal together.
