3. Agreement

The landlord and all tenants identified in this agreement mutually extend the existing written lease identified above for the same premises. The renewed term begins and ends on the dates stated above. The renewed monthly rent applies from the renewal start date, subject to applicable law.

Except for the renewed term and monthly rent expressly stated here, the lawful provisions of the existing lease and its existing addenda continue unchanged, including payment method, rent due day, utilities, maintenance and occupancy provisions. The existing lease must be kept with this agreement.

This agreement does not add an automatic-renewal provision, change any party, extend a guaranty, impose a new fee, waive a claim, or waive any nonwaivable right. An unlawful term in the existing lease is not validated by this renewal. If a provision conflicts with mandatory law, that law controls.

The stated end date is not a notice to vacate or a waiver of renewal, notice, just-cause, rent-limit, habitability, security-deposit, anti-retaliation or other protections. Any later termination, holdover or further renewal is governed by applicable law and the lawful terms of the lease.

All parties should receive a complete signed copy together with the original lease and required disclosures. Signing this document does not establish that a separate notice has been delivered or that a proposed rent increase is lawful.

4. Documents kept with this renewal

Keep this agreement with the original lease and all existing addenda. Provide each party with the complete signed packet and every applicable state, local and federal disclosure. Required notices must be delivered separately on time; signing this renewal does not cure a missing notice or authorize an unlawful increase.

Review the current term

Set the agreed dates

Check the original renewal provision and any notices already delivered. Montana Code 70-24-441 generally provides seven days' written notice for terminating weekly tenancies and 30 days for terminating monthly tenancies. Check scope and exceptions, including separate rules for certain mobile-home spaces.

Keep deposit records

Calendar return and itemization

Section 70-25-202 generally requires itemization and refund within 30 days of the earlier of termination or surrender and acceptance. A 10-day rule applies when the inspection and account meet the conditions for a full refund. Review the 2025 changes to delivery and refund methods, the pending-claim exception, and the separate cleaning notice rules.
