3. Agreement

The landlord and all tenants identified in this agreement mutually extend the existing written lease identified above for the same premises. The renewed term begins and ends on the dates stated above. The renewed monthly rent applies from the renewal start date, subject to applicable law.

Except for the renewed term and monthly rent expressly stated here, the lawful provisions of the existing lease and its existing addenda continue unchanged, including payment method, rent due day, utilities, maintenance and occupancy provisions. The existing lease must be kept with this agreement.

This agreement does not add an automatic-renewal provision, change any party, extend a guaranty, impose a new fee, waive a claim, or waive any nonwaivable right. An unlawful term in the existing lease is not validated by this renewal. If a provision conflicts with mandatory law, that law controls.

The stated end date is not a notice to vacate or a waiver of renewal, notice, just-cause, rent-limit, habitability, security-deposit, anti-retaliation or other protections. Any later termination, holdover or further renewal is governed by applicable law and the lawful terms of the lease.

All parties should receive a complete signed copy together with the original lease and required disclosures. Signing this document does not establish that a separate notice has been delivered or that a proposed rent increase is lawful.

4. Documents kept with this renewal

Keep this agreement with the original lease and all existing addenda. Provide each party with the complete signed packet and every applicable state, local and federal disclosure. Required notices must be delivered separately on time; signing this renewal does not cure a missing notice or authorize an unlawful increase.

Additional documents

Before signing

A definite term must be in writing. Confirm the current lease and its renewal provisions before signing. Do not import a periodic-tenancy termination notice into a mutual renewal.

For the same home and parties, with a renewed term of up to one year. Complete all applicable fields, keep the original lease, and attach required disclosures. Prescribed regulated-housing forms are outside this template.

Renewing a fixed or periodic tenancy

Identify the current term

Under 41 O.S. §§ 110–111, a definite term normally ends on its stated date unless the parties agree otherwise. A month-to-month tenancy ordinarily requires at least 30 days' written termination notice measured from service. Consent to occupancy after expiration generally creates a month-to-month tenancy unless agreed otherwise.

Escrow and the written demand

Keep the existing deposit in the proper account

Section 115 requires deposit funds to be held in a federally insured escrow account in Oklahoma. Record the current balance. After termination, return of possession and written demand, the statutory refund rule generally gives the landlord 45 days. The statute also sets a six-month window for the tenant's written demand.

Update the contact information

Section 116 requires written identification of who can receive notice and at what address. Update stale details, and check the flood disclosure rule in § 113a if the property's history warrants it. Keep the signed renewal with the lease and its disclosures.
