Ask for a breakdown before paying

For covered rentals, Alabama generally limits the security deposit to one month's rent. The law allows exceptions for pets, changes to the premises or increased liability risks. Ask what each charge covers and keep a copy of the payment terms.

Before sharing the application

Confirm the address and proposed move-in date, explain which documents you accept, and give applicants a secure way to return the completed form. Keep sensitive account and identification numbers out of this form.
