Before paying a New Hampshire application fee

Before collecting an application or renewal fee, the landlord must clearly disclose its amount in writing and whether satisfactory criminal-background and credit checks are required.

If you pay a fee but do not rent the home, the landlord must return the amount beyond documented actual background-check or credit-check costs and reasonable administrative costs within 30 days of receiving the fee. The law does not require those checks or forbid renting to someone who does not pass them.

This tool collects no fee and performs no screening. Obtain the property's own written terms before paying; signing this application does not acknowledge receiving them.

Keep this notice with the application. Complete the form on the next two pages.
