Rhode Island application-fee protections

A rental application fee cannot be required. A limited exception permits the actual cost of a required official state criminal-background check or credit report when you do not provide a qualifying report issued within 90 days of the application.

If you supply the required recent report, you cannot be charged for it. If you are charged for obtaining a permitted report, you must receive a copy. The housing provider may obtain an independent report at its own expense.

This free form is not a screening report or authorization to obtain one. Arrange any separate lawful screening directly with the housing provider.
